WHOLESALE

About The Suburban Monk

The Suburban Monk invites people to create a life that makes sense, feels good and is so much fun! TSM's cornerstone product, Syd, is a smiling, thumbs-up Buddha-like statue who is a universal symbol of encouragement and joy.

The Suburban Monk was founded by Ellen Atkins, who describes herself as having led a "normal" suburban life with three kids, a dog and a husband. She worked in the corporate arena for 30 years as a C.P.A. before "turning her perfect life upside down" to fulfill an internal quest telling her that there was something more. In 2012, Ellen followed her inspiration and created The Suburban Monk and Syd.

Syd comes in two sizes and people love him for a variety of reasons. Big Syd, available in 2 colors, is playful decor for garden, home and office as his hands hold items like keys, crystals, flowers and inspirational messages. Little Syd, available in 14 colors (each includes a color meaning card) has many uses such as travel companion, get-well gift, ring holder, and meditation buddy.

Live. Laugh. Monk!
